Candidates, please don't shoot! We are running the presses as fast as power will do it. Yours will be done in time.

We look for some peculiar conditions and changes in candidates any time. Things are getting queer and changes are bound to come.

There is a new candidate for County Judge in the field but he has not permitted us to say so in the Eagle. A new Jailer came around but went away as he came.

Dr. Wiley J. Adams, of Blackey a dental student and who will soon be a full fledged one, is here assisting Dr. Whitaker in dental work. Wiley is a hard worker and deserves success.

Big crowds heard excellent sermons at the Baptist meeting at Sandlick Sunday. The funeral of Uncle Joe Holcomb was attended by Elds. Ira Combs, J. T. Whitaker, Geo. B. Ison and others.

Rev. J. T. Whitaker, of Blackey, has filed for the Democratic nomination for Justice in Lower Rock-house precinct. Finley Sumner and Mason Whitaker, Republicans, have also filed for Justice in that district.

Dr. Fitzpatrick, former Judge of the County Court, and Dr. Ira J. Francis, a popular dentist at this place, have each filed for the Democratic nomination for County Judge. It is rumored that 'Squire Tilden Wright, of Millstone, will soon do the same.

Boys, the battles for victory in the primary have not started yet. Don't count on anything yet. Many a gun will be spiked and many a cannon fluke between now and Aug. 6. Be cool, don't cuss; the still hunt and the barkless dog trees quickest.

After looking about among his many friends and viewing conditions as he believes they exist upon his own initiative Henry Tackett has decided not to become a candidate for Sheriff. He had authorized us to announce him but we now instead make the above statement.

"The Man Who Dared," was a most interesting and instructive moving picture. The moral lessons taught in the play were good and such pictures are an uplift to the people. A. C. Brown, the manager, is at great expense in bringing these high class pictures to Whitesburg and we should all show appreciation by patronizing his shows. Any night you can see a clean show at the Pearl and hear some fine music.

Just eighty-one persons have already filed with the County Clerk for the various nominations in the August primary. After thinking and figuring a little on this we decide that of the eighty-one (and there will be more) who have filed no less than fifty of these will be taken to the bull-hole on August 7. The bottom of this notorious hole will look like a valley of dry bones.

People will soon be complaining that there is too much rain.

Whatever may be the pet ideas of those who choose a life of bloomed single-blessedness, a woman was never born to be judge and jury. Her scepter is a caress and her boundless empire is a realm of love. When she fails there her power over man has passed away.

People are curious. Right now it seems to us a certain drunken condition prevails over the coming election. If the people are what we think they are in a very short while they will sober down, that is to say, get down to brass tacks and preserve the future of this county for themselves and for their children. It is not the Eagle's business, it is entirely outside its province, to say who the people will say shall be their preservers, but as an humble citizen, imbued with the life and hope of its country, who shall say it is disinterested? Whether Gentile, Greek or Jew it cares not a rap so the future of the county is saved.

It is important as every wide awake person knows, for farmers to now let no grass grow under their feet. There are only three months of real producing weather in this country and every moment of that time should be utilized. Each lick struck will produce shekels of gold.

The thinking man needs no appeal from any one when it comes to doing his duty. Open your eyes, keep them open and do your duty. Men are needed. Men of muscle, brain and nerve. These grand old hills have them. Shell them out!

Mrs. Wade Tate and Mrs. J. W. Hurd, of East Stone Gap, Va., are spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Ed. L. Williams, here.

In this issue of the Eagle appears the announcement of J. C. Day of our town as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative from the district composed of the counties of Perry and Letcher. Mr. Day is one of our best known citizens and will make a creditable lawmaker should he be chosen.

Just at present we have exhausted our supply of card board stock, tho we are expecting a full stock soon. Until it arrives, to our regret, somebody will have to wait for printing. Again, please be patient.

When news is high and times are dry and there's a mournful sigh in every eye, we look about and puff and pout and strain our might to find something out. When nothing appears worth a flip into the ink our pen we dip and from our head we drag a strip of editorial snip. Local views and local news, local clothes and local shoes are the things for us. Money cannot buy everything by any means. There are no admission tickets to a sunset. You wouldn't trade the look in your boy's eyes when he greets you at night for a million dollars. The glow on the cheek of the damsel could not be bought with diamonds, but, sad to say, she often sacrifices it for nothing. Even in this old world there is a higher life, a glorious life, that money, yea, nothing can buy.

Harlan County Roads

At a meeting held in Frankfort Monday last, the State Highway Commission and Harlan county entered into an agreement relative to State Highways in Harlan county. This agreement provides that Harlan county shall donate to the State of Kentucky $100,000 of its bonds and the State will contribute a like amount, making $200,000 available for road construction in Harlan county at once.

A proposition to vote a $400,000 bond issue will be submitted to the voters of Harlan county at the November election, which will undoubtedly carry, and it is the intention of the Harlan authorities to get either State or Federal Aid, which will double this amount. When this bond issue carries, it is proposed among other things to construct a State Highway up Poor Fork from the Bell county line to the Letcher county line. Portions of this road have already been constructed. That part of this road leading from Poor Fork up the river to the Letcher county line is one of the most needed roads in the entire mountain section. At present there are some six or eight dangerous fords, some of them almost impassable, between the Letcher county line and Poor Fork.

There is at present a fairly good road from the Harlan county line leading up the river to the mouth of Franks creek, and it is hoped that when Harlan county begins the construction of its proposed roads, Letcher county will be able to extend the road up the river from the Harlan county line to Flat Gap where it will connect with the Virginia Highway System.

Announcement

Of J. C. Day, of Whitesburg, for Representative of 97th Legislative District.

To the Voters of Perry and Letcher Counties:

I am a candidate for representative from our district, composed of the counties of Perry and Letcher, subject to the action of the Republican party as expressed at the primary to be held on August 6, 1921.

I am a native Letcher county mountaineer; a son of Preston Day and Nannie Hogg Day both of whom died when I was a small boy, my father having been killed when I was but two years of age. I was principally reared by my grandfather, James Hogg Sr. who is also dead.

I married twenty years ago to the daughter of R. O. Brashears and Jane Combs Brashears and have six children, one of whom, my eldest son just past 16 years is a volunteer now serving in the U.S. Army.

I have been extensively engaged in the farming business and mercantile business and am the owner of a large farm in Letcher county, upon which is situated a mining town mining the coal from my land as well as other lands adjoining it.

I have served the people of my county two terms as Justice of the Peace of Whitesburg No. 1 District and for the past two years have been chairman of the board of trustees of Whitesburg Graded School.

I am well acquainted with the needs of our mountain country and realize that the three principal things that our section of the State needs are better roads and bridges, better schools and churches and a stricter enforcement of our laws, that law and order may prevail, and that we may enjoy peace and prosperity.

Our principal wealth is in our mining industries and I shall favor such laws as will protect them against any unjust burdens of taxation, or other injurious legislation.

I have always been a laboring man and am acquainted with the needs of laboring men and shall favor such legislation as will be fair to both labor and capital, realizing that neither can prosper without the co-operation of the other.

Our representative came from Hazard, Perry county, two years ago and we of Letcher county supported him and gave him no opposition and now the people of Letcher feel that it would be fair, just and right that the Representative for this term should be a citizen of Letcher. That kind of an agreement was made by leaders of both counties and we have kept the faith, and I hope that the people of both counties will rally to my support and help to put a native Kentucky Mountaineer in the next Legislature.

I have always been a loyal Republican and as this is a large Republican district let's make no mistake about the nomination of a loyal Republican on our ticket. Thanking you for any support you may give me and assuring you that if I am nominated and elected I shall serve the people of the whole district conscientiously and soberly.

Very truly yours,
J. C. DAY

Home Burned

The home of Steve Gilly and almost everything therein was accidentally destroyed by fire last Monday. The fire originated in some way from a cooking stove and was beyond control when discovered. Mr. Gilly is a good hardworking citizen residing on Big Cowan and has a family of small children. Now, let our citizens help him to get back on his feet.

To constantly practice lessons of honesty is a reasonably sure way of becoming honest. Many a person has fought many a hard battle before conquering this one bad enemy.

EDITORIALS

The friend that you have to pet constantly to keep him from snapping at you is not worth your while.

No human is a greater curse than the opened eyed and opened eared dupe who slips around the home and then whispers the story from house to house as though he had but one bosom friend in all the world. When St. Paul formulated his list of villains he put the whisperer in the middle of the list. He poisons both ways.

When you get to thinking how awfully mean others are and how despicable, tip the forehead of the one under your own hat and look into him. Do this and make an honest comparison.

Two excellent gentlemen have gone on record as candidates for the Democratic nomination for County Judge. Now, gentlemen, let your acts till the campaign for the nomination is over be such as to meet the hearty approval of one for the other and the other for the one. There may be no marrow in the bone you are going after for either of you. You never know.

The drift of time has brought with it the shifting sands. Rivers sometimes change their courses. Vast territories, far removed from seas and oceans, have in their soils deposits that puzzle the brain. The great Gorge, is said to be but the history of the Niagara, and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado is but the caprice of a water-way among the wild and scenic fastnesses of the Rockies. What we call time is only a march of the eternities—a period that grants a human being the time to fashion destiny. The river of life moves always in the stateliest grandeur. Today a frantic torrent; tomorrow, a limpid stream. Things do not really decay. They change, they shift. As children we begin our pilgrimage to a far away land. Our little ones began in the same way. Some other child will romp and play on our baby's play-ground. Thus the shifting scenes are, set for the new who come to play their part in life's great drama. As I write this I look out thro the window upon the playground of those who have long since passed from time and the ground looks sacred. In my mind I cry out "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud."

Readers of the Eagle will note the news item in this issue relative to the construction of Harlan county roads. It appears that that the spirit of good county highway construction continues to catch like wild fire through the entire mountain counties. Letcher county citizens are particularly interested in the construction of the road and bridges up Poor Fork from the town of Poor Fork to our county line.

The truth is the people of the entire Cumberland section of our county look almost exclusively to Poor Fork for ingress and egress and every effort possible should be made in having this particular bit of highway built at once. With the Letcher and Harlan County Road Commissioners working in harmony, much will undoubtedly be accomplished in the near future, and many of our good citizens accommodated to good roads and safe travel. The Letcher County Commissioners are devoting a good deal of valuable time and more or less expense (their own, however,) to the perfecting of the plans of immediate highway construction in our county, and with the hearty approval of all our citizens, will undoubtedly accomplish much. They are men, too, who will permit no leaks or drains upon any funds available or any unnecessary delays in anything they undertake. This, of course, the public expects them to do.

In connection with the above, however, let it be understood that until the plans of our commissioners to build a highway from Whitesburg to the Pike county line, and from Whitesburg to the Perry county line, are perfected, nothing will be undertaken in the construction of the road from the county seat to the Harlan county line.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have been down in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was beneficial to me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

Don't Envy Your Neighbor

Do you envy some neighbor who seems to be getting along a little better than you do? The chances are that his success is due to some special plan which you can adopt with equal success. Your neighbor's handsome bank account is the result of many small deposits made often. That plan is easy but it pays handsomely. There are many people passing our bank every day with money in their pockets that might easily be put away at interest. But because these amounts are small they are not saved—and the loss goes on for a lifetime. We always welcome the small regular deposits of all who are willing to adopt this system—it means sure success in due time. Think it over.

How to Make a Candidate

If you need more candidates the following is a good recipe for making them: Pick out some man and go to him and whisper in his ear that he is the very man the people want for —. This will put a bug in his ear. Then move quietly away apparently in deep thought. Meet up with an acquaintance and tell him to go to the same man in a day or so and repeat to him the same story. Find another man and do the same by him. The very next day he will go to town, talk the matter over with a few friends and crazy as a loon he becomes. Candidates grow like mushrooms. They spring up in the night time. People just hate to tread ruthlessly on them and crush out their lives. When once, however, they get their roots strongly growing in the ground they never get over it. In truth it is an incurable disease. Like the itch it is easily caught and hard to cure. Sometimes solitary confinement in the bullhole is the only cure.

CANDIDATES, READ THE NOTICE ON PAGE 3, by County Clerk Back, telling you what to do to get on the ballot, etc.

PAY TRIBUTE TO WHITE

Chief Justice Laid to Rest at Georgetown Cemetery.

President Harding and Other High Government Officials Attend Funeral at Washington.

Washington, June 23.—The whole nation, as represented by its government, joined in paying last honors to its late chief justice, Edward Douglas White. By order of the President, all activities in the executive departments were suspended for the funeral. The funeral, private by request of the family, was arranged in no sense as an official occasion, but the position the chief justice occupied in the affairs of the country made it impossible to eliminate what amounted to official mourning.

Among those to attend, besides President Harding, were Justice White's associates on the Supreme bench, as honorary pallbearers, Vice President Coolidge, select committees from the senate and the house, and the full delegation in congress from the jurist's native state, Louisiana, as well as the cabinet members, with the exception of Attorney General Daugherty.

Mr. Daugherty was called to Ohio by illness in his family and designated as his representative, Col. Guy D. Goff, assistant to the attorney general, and Solicitor General William J. Frieson, ranking legal officer in the absence of the attorney general.

High requiem mass was held at St. Matthew's church, following ceremonies at the family home and interment was in Oak Hill cemetery, Georgetown.

Simultaneous with the hour of the funeral, President Harding ordered that the American flag, wherever flown, be half-masted and that a funeral salute of 17 guns be fired at American military and naval stations throughout the world.

ALLEGES PEGGY SOUGHT TITLE

Princess Viora Willing to Testify at Hearing to Be Held in Chicago.

REFUSED TO GIVE UP PRINCE

Declares Wife of J. Stanley Joyce Entered Pact With Her Husband to Secure Divorces and Unite Fortunes Obtained by Deceit.

Chicago, June 18.—When pretty Peggy Joyce steps to the witness stand in Judge Sabath's court to support her petition for $10,000 a month alimony, and enough suit money to fight all the charges preferred against her by her third husband, J. Stanley Joyce, the first thing she will be questioned about will be her plan to prefix a title to her name.

Divorce Pact Charged. She will be cross-examined until she is forced to tell of an alleged arrangement between herself and Prince Viora whereby they were to rid themselves of their respective spouses, annex a couple of million dollars with their divorces, and, as man and wife, restore the reigning house of Albania to all of its old-time glamour.

The existence of such an agreement, it is said, was first hared by the Princess Viora, formerly Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould Thomas, granddaughter of Eugene Kelly, millionaire New York banker, divorced wife of Frank Jay Gould and widow of Ralph III Thomas, Gotham capitalist.

Princess Willing to Take Stand. The princess, so Joyce's legal representatives averred some time ago, has announced a willingness to come here and appear before Judge Sabath. The detectives employed by Joyce to hunt out the cache in Europe where Peggy secreted the fortune in jewels which Joyce lavished on her during the first heat of their honeymoon, say that the Albanian prince made a confession to his wife of his relations with the artful Peggy.

This confession, as retold by the princess, follows:

Her Suspicions Aroused. "The prince was absent for more than a week last August, and he was vague about it and made unlikely excuses. I suspected him. Then I heard he had been seen with a pretty young American actress.

"One night I was looking for a little ornament to wear to the opera. I came across a small jewel case in which the prince kept his treasures. I found two lace handkerchiefs. I supposed he got them from the American actress.

"When the prince came home I asked him about those sweet smelling bits of lace.

Makes Confession. "He said he and this actress, Peggy Joyce, had met a few weeks before, and were madly infatuated with each other—or thought they were.

"The young woman did not love her husband.

"The prince broke down. He begged and told of his plans with him, while he took of the plans they had made.

"It was very simple. Peggy would go back to the States and sue her husband for divorce. She would get several million dollars in settlement. It would be very easy. She told the prince her husband was immensely wealthy, but that she could twist him around her little finger with ease.

"Then, with her divorce and her American millions, she would return and marry the prince, if—ah, if—

"She would marry him if I would do the generous thing—submit to a divorce and give the prince a suitable separation gift. I would make two suffering hearts happy by giving the prince a divorce and, say, a couple of millions of those nice spending American dollars.

Believes It Passing Fancy. "I'm afraid I wasn't at all in favor of this. You see, I realized the poor dear boy was temperamental and rather susceptible. A pretty face, you know, a passing fancy. I was sure the infatuation would not last, and I didn't relish the idea of having my husband taken away from me.

"And if Peggy got him, could she make the poor fellow happy? One must consider many things in such a case, must one not? Ah, yes, one must."

CHINESE FAMINE LAID TO DEFORESTATION

THE REV. WILLIAM STOUT.

DESTRUTION of China's great forests is blamed by returning missionaries for the world's worst famine that now threatens to wipe out 15,000,000 lives in North Central China.

The Rev. Mr. Stout, of Louisville and Georgetown, Ky., who has returned home after five years in China, will begin a tour of the State next week to tell of the horrible conditions in the famine area.

The Rev. Mr. Stout is active in raising funds for the China Famine Fund, of which Joseph Burge, Louisville, is treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullins, is chairman. Through the China Famine Fund, every relief organization in China is supplied with funds.

KENTUCKIAN TELLS OF WORST FAMINE

The Rev. William Stout Blames China's Catastrophe to Destruction of Forests

WILL SPEAK OVER STATE

Destruction of North China's great forests during the centuries that have passed; this deforestation which now leaves an area of 500,000 square miles denuded of trees, is the direct cause of the worst famine in history. This is the declaration of missionaries returning from the famine area and voiced by the Rev. William Stout, who has returned to his home in Georgetown, Ky., after five years in China.

The Rev. Mr. Stout will start a speaking tour of the state next week in the interest of the China Famine Fund of which Joseph Burge, 9 Board of Trade Building, Louisville, is chairman.

Through the China Famine Fund, every relief organization in China is supplied with funds; these organizations, including the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, Christian missions, religious organizations and American units.

Deforestation Is Blamed.

"This great catastrophe which threatens to wipe out the lives of 15,000,000 persons within the next sixty days, he said, is due to droughts, the natural result of the denudation of forests which has gone on for centuries in North China. With few trees on the land to hold the moisture the natural consequence is that rainfall is small and uncertain. Even in years when the rainfall is sufficient the Yellow River and other rivers break over their banks, unprotected by trees, washing away the soil and deluging the crops.

"It is a prevalent idea that rice is the main food of all the Chinese people. This is true in South China where travelers get their impression and is strengthened by the fact that nearly all the Chinese in America came from South China. In the fall, wheat is sown in North China and after being harvested in the early summer, millet and sorghum are sown.

Roots Always Eaten.

"All these crops are harvested by being pulled up by the roots as these with the stalks and straw of the grain are the main dependence for fuel. In the years when crops are short it does not mean only that some little luxuries will have to be given up, but it means that there will be less of the coarse millet meal bread. It means that when the potatoes are gone the vines will be eaten; it means that instead of two or three meals a day there will be only one.

"When a crop failure is fifty per cent, as it often is, it means that many starve to death. The last five crops have been only about ten per cent of normal.

"Practically all of North China is village after village, often only separated by a few yards of ground. In parts of North China the population is twenty times denser than in Jefferson County. The Chinaman may live and carry on a business in a port remote from his ancestral village, but he expects to go there and spend his last days and be buried by the side of his ancestors."

ATTACKS NEW BONE-DRY LAW

Representative Hart of Illinois Challenges F. Scott McBride to Debate.

Chicago, June 18.—Charging that the "bone-dry" bill passed by the legislature last week, protects the issuance of whiskey prescriptions and permits and protects the rich men who have their cellars full, Representative John Hart of Batavia, twenty-five, youngest member of the legislature, has challenged F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Illinois Anti-Saloon League, to meet him in public debate on the merits of the bill. Hart, an overseas veteran, made a bitter attack on the bill the day of its passage. He contended that it favors the wealthy in violation of the Volstead act and insures the prosecution of the poor under the same conditions. It is a false pretense bill, according to Hart, and its true purpose is to sustain a political machine.

NOTICE

Pikeville, Ky. June 7

We the undersigned members of the Pike County Bar make this statement with reference to the Administration of Hon. Roscoe Vanover, Judge of the 35th Judicial District of Kentucky.

At the time Judge Vanover was elected the docket of the Pike Circuit Court was congested with a great number of cases and it was almost impossible to get a trial. Judge Vanover went to work and tried these cases. He has tried and disposed of about 3,000 cases during his short tenure in office and has done more work in this short time than any Circuit Judge in the State of Kentucky.

Judge Vanover is an able, honest and sincere Judge. No one can question his sincerity or honesty of purpose. He has been true and faithful to the trust reposed in him as your Judge.

We make this statement because we feel that the people of Pike and Letcher counties are entitled to know the facts with reference to what Judge Vanover has accomplished as Judge of the Pike Circuit Court.

U. S. Consul Protests Against Greek Army Impressments.

Americans Taken Foreibly From Homes and Off Ships and Compelled to Join the Colors.

Smyrna, Asia Minor, June 18.—George Horton, United States consul-general here, has made a vigorous protest to Governor General Steriades against the impressment of United States citizens into the Greek army. Mr. Horton has appealed to Washington to make a peremptory demand upon the Greek government to discontinue this breach of the agreement existing between the two countries.

For many months Americans, even men who served in the army in France, have been taken forcibly from their homes or from vessels arriving from the United States and compelled to join the Greek forces. There have been scores of such cases in Athens, Smyrna, Patras and Saloniki, and only these able to escape and get into communication with American consular officials have obtained redress. In many instances they have been stripped of their clothing and their passports and other papers have been confiscated. When they have been released, they have been humiliated, thrown into jail and mistreated.

Consul-General Horton declares such action by the Greek authorities is in flagrant violation of existing agreements between the United States and Greece, granting military exemption to persons naturalized as American citizens prior to Feb. 1, 1914, and to those who, although naturalized since that time, have served with the American army or navy.

One case is cited as typical of many. Private James Ratliff of New York city, who was cited for liability in the Argonne campaign and who has been receiving a disability allowance of $50 a month from the United States government, was recently arrested by Greek authorities at Mitylene. He came to Greece as an American citizen, to be married, but was brought to Smyrna under guard.

He escaped surveillance and appealed to the American consul-general here, whose energetic action resulted in the man's immediate release. Mr. Ratliff is now returning to New York city with his wife.

Operations Which Have Been in Progress a Week Have Resulted in Hundreds of Prisoners, Sinn Feiners Active in London.

Belfast, June 18.—It is reported here that a big sweep of 5,000 troops has taken place.

It has been known for some time that the military authorities have contemplated strong measures in South Monaghan and Cavan, where there have been numerous murders.

Police and military headquarters, however, profess ignorance. Independent confirmation can not be obtained in Belfast as Monaghan is completely isolated, the telephones having been dismantled apparently by the authorities to prevent news of the operations from becoming public until they were completed. It is believed that a blockade system is about to be established in the affected area, with headquarters at Dundalk.

Sweeping Roundup Made.
Dublin, June 18.—The government forces have been making a sweeping roundup of certain areas in the last few days, with the apparent idea of making large captures and setting them for men who are "wanted."

The operations have been in progress in Monaghan county all this week. Hundreds of arrests were made.

Five cavalry regiments invested Carrickmacross, Monaghan, and captured several private houses. They made several arrests including a dispatch carrier of the Irish republican army. Similar raids occurred at Westford and Athlone.

Cut Wires, Burn Rail Signals.

London, June 18.—A campaign of widespread cutting of railway and signal wires and burning of signal cabins around London, attended by violence against signal men, was carried out during the night by men who the police declared were "Sinn Feiners and members of the Irish Self-Determination league."

Nine men were arrested. The official police statement says:

"All the men arrested gave local addresses. They are young Irishmen between 17 and 22. It has been known for some time that the heads of the Irish Self-Determination league in London have been in correspondence with the so-called Irish republican army which has been directing the murders and outrages in Ireland."

Asks Home Rule Amendment.

Strong pleas for the amendment of the Irish home-rule act came unexpectedly from the house of lords, the feature of the debate being the first speech made by Lord Buxton since he returned from South Africa, where he had served as governor-general.

Accidentally, Lord Buxton disclosed that, with other peers, he had explored the ground with a view to negotiations for a settlement of the Irish difficulty, but he said they had arrived at the conclusion that the only practical initiative must come from the government itself.

Forty-Seventh Session Adjourns After Banquet for New Imperial Potentate.

Des Moines, Iowa, June 18.—The forty-seventh annual convolve of the Ancient Arabic order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, guided following a banquet given in honor of Ernest T. Cutts of Savannah, Ga., the new imperial potentate. It is estimated that more than 30,000 Shriners were here during the three-day convolve. The imperial council unanimously adopted a resolution bringing with deep concern the continued persecution of Christians of the near east, and protesting "to our government against these continued outrages, and requests our president and congress to make representations to the allied governments that armed forces shall be maintained in the near east for the protection of the rights of these persecuted races."

J., August 9, it was declared here. Johnson's first public appearance after his release from prison will be at an athletic show in Leavenworth.

VOTE ON PACKER BILL DELAYED

Morris Substitute Is Defeated in the Senate by Only Three Votes.

KENYON CHALLENGES HARDING

Iowa Senator, Republican Leader, Says President's Edict of "Less Government in Business" Does Not Fit Packing Industry.

Washington, June 18.—Substitution of the Morris bill, proposing drastic federal regulation of the meat packing industry, for the more liberal control measure passed by the house, was defeated in the senate by a margin of three votes. The vote was 31 to 37.

Leaders had expected the final vote on the house bill to come immediately afterward, but it was delayed by the introduction of another substitute by Senator Sterling of South Dakota. The substitute is virtually the same as the rejected Morris bill, except that it delegates its administration to the federal trade commission instead of to a live stock commission as was proposed in the latter. The house bill intrusts this power to the secretary of agriculture.

Immediate consideration of the Sterling measure was blocked by several senators, who demanded more time for its examination. To allow them this opportunity the leaders agreed to defer final action on the legislation.

Harding's Edict Challenged.

President Harding's edict of "less government in business" was challenged on the floor of the senate by Senator Kenyon of Iowa, leader of his own party, in a speech in behalf of the Morris bill.

The senator declared the legislation which proposes the regulation of the packing industry by a federal live stock commission was necessary, despite the administration's injunction against meddling with private business, for the protection of both the producer and consumer, who, he said, are at the mercy of the "big five."

Naming the "big five" as Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and Wilson, Senator Kenyon declared these concerns had obtained such a dominant position that they controlled the market at will and held the fortunes of their smaller competitors in their hands.

This domination, he asserted, was not confined to the meat business, but extended to by-product industries and even unrelated lines.

Charges that the packers were maintaining a great lobby against the pending legislation were made by the senator.

"It is infesting this building and it is at the doors even at this moment, calling senators out of the chamber," he said.

The senator declared that administration leaders who construed the last election as a mandate against further regulation of big business were laboring under a delusion.

Must Destroy Monopoly.

"Why are they blind enough," he asked, "to believe that the American people are going to submit to five men controlling the market place of the American stock raiser, and the prices the consumer pays for his food? This is not a question of government interference with legitimate business. It is a question of government efforts to break up a monopoly. You are not destroying property when you destroy monopoly. This bill may be defeated, but if it is there will be a congress here in time that will pass one even more drastic."

Activities of the federal trade commission were defended by the Iowa senator. The cry for its abolition, he said, arose because it had "tried to turn the light of publicity upon a few of the great monopolies of the nation."

"Just a few days ago," he declared, "this commission filed a report on the lumber industry that has aroused the ire of the gentlemen engaged in cornering the prices of lumber to the American people."

The report mentioned was that on the Douglas fir industry. Referring to it further, the senator continued:

"And these gentlemen who, by virtue of their powerful organizations, have pushed up the price of fir from 300 to 500 per cent, soon will be infesting the capital with their lobbies, demanding a high protective tariff on lumber that they can continue their nefarious practice of monopolizing the people."

"Business that makes from 200 to 500 per cent profit ought to be disturbed where it is done through creating a monopoly, and there are some persons in this country who are not going to be a bit frightened by the cry of 'keep your hands off business' and 'keep away from government regulation.'"

3,000 Emigrants Stranded.

Antwerp, June 18.—The new American immigration laws are causing congestion at the port of Antwerp, especially as regards Poles, a number of whom are being left behind by each steamer. The steamer Kresnaland, which sailed June 12 and was due to take 800 emigrants, carried only 200. There are now more than 3,000 emigrants here virtually stranded.

ture of Tanlac, which according to recent reports is now having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world, over 20,000,000 bottles having been sold in six years.

The new plant occupies 60,000 square feet of floor space and has a daily capacity of 50,000 bottles. Uniform quality is guaranteed by a series of careful inspections by expert chemists from the time the roots, herbs, bark and flowers are received until their medicinal properties have been extracted by the most approved processes.
